Presidents Letter

Dear members

We are now bringing to a close what has been a very successful year for MHCGB.

Membership has increased this year by 35% proving Miniature Horse ownership is on the increase, which can only be a good thing for our industry. The shows have brought forward probably the best examples of Miniature Horses in the land as quoted by our show judges this year.

We have seen the approval of our passport issuing office and our horses exhibited and displayed at some fantastic, supportive shows around the country.

We held our first highly successful championship show at the fantastic Sheepgate Equestrian centre, Boston. Results and comments further on. Our training days have proved extremely popular in which we have brought you some of the most highly respected trainers from the US to share their tips and ideas with. We are at present firming up dates for our Winter training day with a top US breeder watch for details later via email.

All in all a good year.

So to 2005, we have some new ideas to bring to you. We would like to increase opportunities to involve more members and bring more horses to the show ring, therefore we will be introducing several new classes. Probably our most exciting will involve the Gelding Incentive Programme. Look further into our Magazine for our press release. Also new for 2005 will be the Category B Classes aimed at horses exceeding 34" but not 38". (Note: MHCGB adopts the world recognised measuring procedure for miniature Horses of measuring to the last hairs for the mane) We will offer as many 'B' Classes as your entries support. We have seen our class sizes increase this year therefore our major shows will offer age classes split into sexes, again catering for members with multiples of horses in one class.

On behalf of myself and the committee I would like to take this opportunity to thank all 2004 members for supporting our club and participating in our events.

Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and a Peaceful & successful 2005

Jill Robinson
President

And so to bed!

Having over the years tried various bedding materials for my horses, I have settled on the chopped hemp type. I use either Aubiose or Equisorb. Expensive I hear you ask? Well, let me explain my reasoning here.

I used straw for years, it certainly has its pro's:

1. It is very warm
2. It is cheap.
3. It is still very easy to source.

In my opinion it also has its cons:

1. It carries various bugs.
2. It is VERY dusty (unless expensively dust extracted)
3. A lot of horses just eat it....and eat it....and...
4. This is the worst thing about it IMO It allows urine and dung to cling to itself and to liberally spread themselves over our little dears.

I have used shavings. Again, there are the pros:

1. It is warm
2. Although not as cheap as straw it is not hugely expensive.
3. It is cleaner than straw.
4. It is easy to muck out

And so to the cons:

1. It sticks to the horses, the rugs, and me!
2. The dust factor (more expensive with dust extracted)
3. Urine soaks away into it, but still the dung gets onto the horses.
4. It takes a long long time to decompose, so does not make such good compost.

The chopped hemp I have used for the past year or so, pros:

1. It is clean and some types have an insecticide added to discourage eating. (I find that the horses try to eat it the first day or so then don't bother)
2. It does not stick to either me the horse or the rugs (Yippee)
3. The urine soaks into a sort of ball underneath the top layer and can be skipped out very easily (sort of like cat litter!)
4. The dung gets covered in the stuff and does not allow much to get onto the horses.
5. It breaks down really quickly and makes wonderful, very sellable compost.
6. Although relatively expensive it lasts really well, I put a bed down new, and only have to top up every six or seven days, and then it does not take much...skipping out regularly is the key.

Cons:

1. You do have to skip out regularly...
2. No more cons for me ☺

So there you have my thoughts on bedding....what does everyone else do, I am always interested in learning tips and using good ideas from others?

T'was the night before Christmas, and all through the Stable

T'was the night before Christmas and all through the stable all the creatures were sleeping, all safe, as were able. The feed buckets were hung by the stable doors with care, In the hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there.

The Mares and foals nestled all warm in there beds, While visions of carrot cakes danced through their heads. The colts, the spot bred and even the Apps, The drivers and show teams were all taking naps.

When out in the fields there arose such a clatter I awoke in my stable to see what was the matter.

I moved to the window fast as I could to see where the noise came from, if I should! The sight I saw when I gazed out in the night was a beautiful horse all gleaming and white He wore a red blanket so beautiful, and old and he pulled a large sleigh all glittering gold With swift certain motions to our stable he came, and silvery moonlight danced through his mane. More rapid than racehorses his hooves they came, And he whinnied and he snorted and called us by name. He was our Christmas, a special spirit of flight, Who has come to all horses, just one special night. A brilliant example who served us so well, especially those whom a foal did dwell. Down the aisle he came, his hoof beats so light, and he stopped by each stall in our stable that night. Gifts he did give to all in our barn, more heart or more courage, or to be free from harm. He spoke not a word but went straight to his work, and he filled all the feed buckets then turned with a jerk. And nickering softly on Golden hooves so bright, and giving a nod he went into the night. And I heard him whinny as he went out of sight, Merry Christmas to all, and to all a Good Ni-i-i-i-ight!

Area 3 MIDLANDS

Cheshire, Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire, Leicestershire, Warwickshire, Shropshire, Herefordshire and Worcestershire.

Jane Parker E-mail: pp@conundrum.fsworld.co.uk 01530 223594 (More likely to catch me on) 0777 3295 742.

This is the first time I have reported your Midland news. I hope you will all send me details of anything Miniature that you feel should be reported in this space. If any of you have knowledge of shows that would allow us classes and that you think people would be prepared to travel to, then please let me know. We held some very successful shows, displays in 2004. Hopefully we will be welcome at these events in 2005, I will be contacting the various secretary's and will "let you know"!!

With winter upon us most of you will be letting your horses rest up a bit, and not working them quite so hard.....BUT.....here in the Midlands we have the inimitable Gill Burt, who is holding a winter show programme at Rosedeens, Southhurst Farm, Crackley Lane, Kenilworth. The first one was a great success, with some very nice horses and ponies entered. The classes are comprehensive, covering age, colour etc. Also at the end of the conformation events there are fun classes from best mane and tail, to best six legs!!

The next Rosedeens show is scheduled for Sunday 7th November and then the Christmas special on Sunday 12th December. This show is pre-entry as it is thought there will be a very high turn out. Gill has put on a great schedule so do ring for an entry form and support these shows. Contact number is:- 01676 549009.

The club High Points night has recently been held here in the Midlands, it was a great night, kicking off with the AGM, then a meal in a very informal and fun atmosphere. This was followed by the presentations of the most lovely rosettes and trophy's. As one of the people who forgot to buy a high points card for 2004, I would urge everyone to who shows to do this. This club try's hard to give all members something back, and the few pounds it costs for a points card, not only goes towards the trophy's etc on the night. But to the training days and seminars the club put on and promote.

Area 8 WEST COUNTRY -Devon, Cornwall and Somerset.

Eileen Yaxley 01398 331813 email e.yaxley@goldserve.net

Now that the show season has ended it is difficult to imagine where those elegant, refined little horses are, now hidden under a woolly coat more suited to Siberia !

Our final Crealy Park Show of the year was held on 5th September, once again in fine weather, and we are looking forward to more miniature horse classes being added to the schedule for the 2005 season.

A new date for the West Country diary is 'Cornwall's Open Show' held on the beautiful Scorrier Estate. Kay Berwick, who has run this prominent show for many years has kindly included Miniature Horse classes in the 2005 schedule. The date of the show is 29th May, subject to confirmation.

One final event in the West Country in 2004 is the Equine Fair to be held at the Devon County Show Ground, Westpoint, Exeter on the 4/5th December. This is the first time Miniature Horses have been included at this annual event and we are working hard to put together material, pictures and information from MHCGB members to promote the club and the joys of Miniature Horse ownership.

We have some pix of members' horses being driven, and of course posed, but if anyone has pix of their mini jumping, could you send them to me for inclusion on the stand, together with cards or adverts of your stud. We need these urgently as it takes a great deal of time suitably arranging the display boards.

A Merry Christmas and Successful New Year to everyone from the South West - look forward to meeting up again in 2005.

Eileen

AREA NEWS

Area 5 EAST of ENGLAND

Lincolnshire, Norfolk, Suffolk, Cambridgeshire, Bedfordshire and Northants.

Patricia Englund Tel no 01205 871970 email marieabeel@hotmail.com

Hello. My name is Patricia Englund and I feel privileged to be asked by the committee of the MHCGB to take over from Claire as representative for Area 5 East of England. This quite a new venture for me and I hope I will be able to do as well as Claire. In this area (Boston Lincolnshire), we have very little for the miniature. There are classes for M&M's but the Shetland is always up against the welsh among others.

There are a few shows that have specific classes but they are few and far between and the pony must be shown "au naturel" ie not clipped. Hopefully we can encourage more show to put on classes specifically for the miniature pony, Shetland, American or Falabella.

I am a lady of near pensionable age, who started with horses properly when I was 25. I could just about sit on a horse and make it go forward. I did NOT know how to ride, so I jumped in the deep end and went to the continent to work with international show jumpers and dressage horses. I kept my eyes open and asked a lot of questions. I also had a variety of very good teachers. It was there I learnt to ride and to turn out a horse to a high standard. I competed in the three main disciplines until I came back to England. As I grew older, and my joints got more fragile, I started showing, both in hand and under saddle. I only went to one large show (PUK) but I did not find the atmosphere to my liking so have continued at the smaller show regularly qualifying for the larger show. Now it is becoming more difficult to show large horses I have turned my attention to the miniatures, having acquired Barnsley Tom Tit, a Shetland colt of 17mths. Who is great fun. Having been to the last show at sheepgate, which I found great fun, I have decided to continue with the miniatures and have, with great pleasure accepted the offer from the committee. I hope to be able to get to know more of you in the future and hope we can take the MHCGB from strength to strength!!

Area 6 SOUTH EAST of ENGLAND,

Essex, Hertfordshire, Kent, East Sussex and London.

Linda Lumley 07810 207117 lumleyjim@aol.com

Hi everybody,

Well with most of the shows finished I expect everyone is looking forward to a more 'relaxing' time if you can call it that! so did everyone enjoy the shows this year?

Back here in the Essex area there have been a few more shows and more people coming out with their little ones. We (my daughter and I) recently went to a show at Dorewards Hall, quite well organised but lack of competitors so those that were there had to hang around hoping that more people would show up, but a nice show and friendly atmosphere the lady that owns the place has asked if we would like to hold a few miniature classes there next year, but would like us to supply the judges. What says you?? would a few more of the South East people like this idea?. Hopefully I will be speaking to Sarah Bidmead at sometime to see what she says about her shows next season, as this year was her first for miniature classes and it was a little disappointing the fact that NOT ENOUGH MINIATURES showed up, even though the judge travelled a long way, I would also like to ask the organisers of the Basildon Equestrian Club, if they would reconsider holding miniature classes at their shows. In 2003 they had some very well supported miniature classes, but due to the fact that monies were not paid as agreed by the society concerned they decided to give 2004 a miss. I am quite prepared to ask them to consider us the MHCGB holding classes but would ask your support. I believe Basildon makes a small charge for the use of one of their rings, but local support should be good.

So how many of you went to the first 'miniature horse sale'? I was one and have to say very disappointed with most of what was there, how about foals? one of my mares was apparently due in August, is getting wider but come on it is now 3 November, what is she waiting for?? on speaking to a couple of other people it appears that some of their mares have been late foaling, one lady said hers was due in June and actually arrived in September, yes the vet stands his ground and says there is a foal in there, only time will tell. the mare is perfectly healthy. That's it from area 6

Hope everybody has a great Christmas and New Year

see you all at the shows

'Flu Vaccination Reaction in the Miniature Horse

A personal view By Jane Davenport - Lister

Seven Years ago I made the decision to stop vaccinating my horses for Equine Influenza. This was a result of six months of hell after my entire herd of 50 miniatures contracted flu like symptoms after vaccination. A group of weanlings were vaccinated together & soon became ill one by one. Even though the horses were isolated the symptoms of depression, high temperature, coughing & runny nose spread slowly through almost all my horses. ALL WERE FULLY VACCINATED. It took six months of hard work & a lot of expense to finally hear the last cough. I talked it through with my vet & we decided enough was enough. My vet contacted the vaccine companies who insisted a miniature should receive the full dose of vaccine. Once I made it known I had got a problem MANY miniature owners phoned complaining of similar problems. One large breeder commented on the death of several miniatures after vaccination & another phoned in desperation as the red blood cells in her two miniature were being destroyed.

Exhibitor often ask why I don't show at HOYS, I don't as vaccination is compulsory. This year at HOYS three exhibitors told me of their problems this year alone with vaccinating their show horses, of missed shows & wasted entry fees & horses just "not right".

Previous to our "big" problem we would, at some part of the year, get a cough or runny nose on the yard. Since I have stopped vaccinating this is no longer a constant worry. I do take precautions with my show horses, They are stabled & turned out away from my breeding stock. We use homeopathic & herbal remedies to try to protect our horses & for me it seems the best option.

What I would like to do is to collate some information & try to find out if there really is a problem with miniature horses & IF there is to present the findings to the vaccine companies.

I have therefore contact most societies for help. I NEED to know if you have had a problem or if indeed you have been vaccinating miniatures for years & never had a problem. I do believe it is only certain horses that get a reaction & don't wish to panic anyone with this research. The following information would be helpful & please feel free to let me know your experiences in fullest detail. You can remain anonymous if you like !

I have heard of serious problems with vaccination of dogs & understand that it is possible to use a smaller dose of vaccine with tiny dogs, any information about this may help ?

The summer show 2004 Newclose Farm, Norton.

A quick change of venue and judge with 2 days notice was required to get this years 'Summer Show' back on schedule. The grounds of the beautiful Preston Hall, which unfortunately sit on the banks the River Tees, were under approx. 6" of water. Jill's indoor school, usual venue for our Spring Show, too was underwater and needed a major mopping up job in order to host the Summer Show. The committee took the decision 'The show must go on' giving the much needed revenue for the coming Championship show. As ever this show was well supported by local members (and some not so local) a successful if not a little muddy show took place. Many thanks to our judge Miss Vivian Hogg for stepping in (not only the mud!!) at the last minute.

Success by Performance

We help individual horse buyers and sellers ship economically by offering consolidated services. EMO Trans will arrange every detail from the time you buy or sell your horse to the time it is delivered to the final destination.

If you are relocating, we can arrange to have the horse delivered as soon as you are settled in, or to a stable of your choice to await your arrival.

If you are shipping a miniature horse or miniature donkey, we have the experience in their transportation qualifications as well.

EMO Trans can arrange the following:

- ~ Quarantine / isolation (30 days in most cases)
- ~ Booking
- ~ All veterinary blood tests
- ~ Health certificate preparation
- ~ All export / import documentation to include carnet processing when needed
- ~ Hauling to nearest airport
- ~ USDA veterinarian services at origin airport
- ~ Trained animal attendants to provide care, food, and water during the journey
- ~ Wooden crates built specifically to accomodate the miniatures
- ~ Hauling to final destination stable
