£65 per person

We are extremely delighted to announce our 2019 training seminar and workshop will be hosted by Mr Wayne G Hipsley of Lexington, Kentucky
Senior AMHA carded judge and distinguished, highly sought-after judge for numerous horse breed societies.

Starting at 9.30am with a meet and greet including breakfast pastries and a hot drink; the morning session will be classroom based giving attendees a unique opportunity to gain insight and share the knowledge of one of the world's top horse judges and educators. Learn what the judge is looking for; how to present your horse to catch and also deceive the judge's eye; how a judge scores your horse in performance and how to improve those all-important marks amongst many other tips for the show ring.

This will be followed by a two course lunch (including a hot or soft drink) to the usual high standard of the Oakridge restaurant.

The afternoon session will be hands on in the arena, where you will be able to join workshops in Showing hosted by Wayne, Driving (host still TBC) and Halter Obstacle & In-hand Jumping hosted by the MHCGB Performance Rep Amie.

Overnight and Day stabling is available should you require it, please indicate below your requirements (no more than two miniatures per stable).
